Secretary minutes from February meeting were read. Motion was made to accept by Kathy Vogt and seconded by Judy Kepler.

OLD BUSINESS

Discussion on fundraisers were discussed. Lori Mason, Project Manager, noted that she was open to any and all suggestions for fund raising ideas during Covid. Suggestions were upcoming approved events, food trucks donating portions of sales etc.

NEW BUSINESS

Michaels' Pizza has agreed to sponsor an all-day fund raiser on October 22, 2020. We get 10% of the sales for the day.

Fundraisers were discussed several suggestions were made to include a golf scramble. Lori Mason will be following up on the ideas and see how feasible they will be for CPAA to accomplish. Please feel free to suggest – no idea is silly or impossible except the one that we do not know about. If an idea strikes between meetings – call Lori at 931-220-2644.

The annual CPAA Christmas Party will tentatively December 17,2020 at 6PM at the Range House. Keep in mind we are in a pandemic!

Potluck, Dirty Santa (optional participation) Ugly Sweater (Optional participation).

Flag Poles for the new precincts were discussed and CPAA will be purchasing them as we have I the past. Cost for them was $2,065.00. Due to COVID and weather, completion of the precincts will be completed approximately April or May 2021.

Captain Love will be over Citizens Police Academy.

Going forward with the pandemic being an issue, emails and social media posts will be made to keep everyone updated.

Meeting was adjourned. Motion made by Rhonda Davis 2nd by Kathy Gray.

Special Guest

Captain Cockrell introduced himself and thanked CPAA for the assistance that we provide. He explained that the department was undertaking updates to by-laws and procedures within the department.
